Try These.....

A Wrinkle in Time
by Madeline L’Engle
Two kids plus a friend search for their missing father after he experiments with time travel.
ages 10-12

Bridge of Time
by Lewis Buzbee
A boy and girl land in 1864, far from their parents’ divorces but close to Sam Clemens, a.k.a. Mark Twain.
ages 8-12

The Magic Half
by Annie Barrows
Eleven year-old Miri slips back to 1935 and meets the girl who once lived in her room. Sibling issues come up too.

Time at the Top; All in Good Time
by Edward Ormondroyd
An elevator transports a lonely girl back to 1881.
ages 8-11

Abe Lincoln at Last!
(Magic Treehouse series)
by Mary Pope Osborne
Jack and Annie again travel back to a different era and need help from a busy president.
ages 8-11

Oh Say, I Can’t See (series)
by John Scieszka
Modern day time travelers inspire George Washington to strike the Hessians at Trenton.
ages 8-10

Time Travelers (first in The Gideon Trilogy)
by Linda Buckley-Archer
Two friends fall from the 21st century into 19th century London. Intrigue!
ages 10-12

Molly Moon’s Hypnotic Time Travel Adventure (series)
by Georgia Byng
A girl is transported to 19th century India, complete with a maharajah.
ages 9-11

Jackie and Me (series)
by Dan Gutman
Baseball cards take a boy to 1947 when the color barrier was broken in the Major Leagues.

Found (first book in the Missing series)
by Margaret Peterson Haddix
Twins arrive on a mysterious plane from nowhere.
ages 10-12

Madame Pamplemousse and the Time-Travelling Cafe
by Rupert Kingfisher
A recipe developed at a Parisian cafe turns out to be dangerous.
ages 6-9

House of Arden
by E. Nesbit
A treasure hunt across the ages is undertaken by a brother and sister. Will they succeed?
ages 8-12

Compiled by the librarians with assistance from Saffron, Upper School student, December 2013